ABOUT ME: I'm currently studying for a Master's in Journalism and International Affairs at the University of SciencesPo in Paris. I work mostly in creating visual content, both in filming and photography. I have worked for journalists as a camerawoman and produced my own stories in France, Israel and Iraq. I have a wide variety of interests however you will see recurrent thematics in my work such as Middle Eastern affairs, women's rights issues and stories regarding civil rights movements.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance video journalist

2021 - until today

I currently work as a freelance journalist, filming stories for Arte.tv and Radio Télévision Suisse as well as producing, writing, filming and editing for TV5Monde and Fild.media

Video journalist intern at FranceTV, Jerusalem

Summer of 2020

During this summer internship, I was able to build my own news stories, from beginning to end; writing the script, finding the interviewees, going in the field to film and edit the final piece for it to be broadcasted on national French television.

Reporter at i24 News, Tel-Aviv Yafo

2018 - 2019

As a journalist in i24news, I covered current events, reporting on daily news, in Israel but also around the world. i24 news sends its journalists on the field for live broadcast and investigation.

Terre des Hommes, Geneva - Awareness raising

2016 and 2016

Terre des Hommes Suisse is an NGO defending Children's rights. My work was to raise awareness within the Swiss youth, visiting classes with students aged 3 to 16 years old to discuss the causes of North-South disparities.

English teacher, Tira, Israel

2014-2015

Tira is an arab city in the Central District of Israel and the English House offers after school programs to help students develop language skills.

Radio Anchor – IDC Radio

2015-2016

Writer and Producer of the French Connection show.

Translations – IDC Herzliya

2015
